

GLS UNIVERSITY
INTEGRATED MSc(IT)
SEMESTER I
221601103 INTERNET & WEB DESIGNING USING HTML5
THEORY ASSIGNMENT – UNIT 2

Q-1 True or False

1. A table is a three dimensional matrix.
2. Cellspacing attribute of the table controls the distance between the data in the cell.
3. The <table> tag is used to create an HTML form for the user input.
4. In radio button user can select only one option.
5. In checkbox user can select multiple options.
6. The input element has type attribute in the form.
7. The password field displays the asterisk symbol.
8. The reset button submits the current data held in each form elements.
9. The submit button clear the current data held in each form elements.
10. Checkbox has checked & unchecked states.
11. Frameset tag is supported in HTML5.
12. Each <frame> element can hold a separate document.
13. The <frameset> tag has columns and rows attributes.
14. In <frameset> tag the value of the cols attribute can be specified in %.
15. <iframe> tag defines an outline frame.

Q-2 Fill in the Blanks

1. To display table border _____ attribute is used in table.
2. To give a heading to the table _____ tag is used.
3. Cellpadding is used for _____
4. Each column of a table is described between _____ tag.
5. Rows can be of _____ types. That are _____ and _____.
6. The _____ tag defines a table caption.
7. The _____ attribute of the table controls the spacing between adjacent cells.
8. The _____ tag is used to create an HTML form for the user input.
9. _____ attribute is used for merging two rows in table.
10. A _____ type of input, a user select one or more options of a limited number of choices.
11. A _____ type of input defines the masked characters.
12. The _____ tag defines a multi-line text input control.
13. The _____ tag inside the _____ element defines the available options in the list.
14. The _____ property indicates the number of radio buttons in a group.
15. The _____ property indicates the index value of the currently selected radio button/option of the options array.
16. The _____ tag defines a frameset.
17. The <frameset> element holds one or more _____ elements.
18. The _____ attribute specifies the number and size of columns in a frameset
19. The _____ attribute specifies the number and size of rows in a frameset
20. _____ tag defines an inline frame.

Q-3 Answer the following questions:

1. Explain the table tag in details.
2. Explain the table attributes with example.
3. Explain Input element in details.
4. Explain textarea tag in details.
5. Explain select tag in details.
6. Explain Frametag and frameset along with their attributes.
7. What are iFrames. Explain with attributes.